Dear Mrs. Manley:

I wish to thank you very sincerely for your invitation to cover your first home game in Newark on Saturday, May 9th.

As you probably knew, I have been concentrating on the business side of the paper and do not have the opportunity to cover sports excessively as I did in former years. It is possible that Wendell Smith may be able to come and he informed me that he will write you on this score.

Accept my sincerest wishes to yourself and your good husband. Lots of success with your baseball club during the coming season.

Very truly yours,
